

Camden County Songfest

for Children and Youth Singers

Date: Saturday, March 27, 2010

Location: Haddonfield High School
(401 E. Kings Hwy, Haddonfield)

Time: 8:30am Check-in for children (gr. 3-5)
9:15am Check-in for youth (gr. 6-9)
Free Concert at 3pm for friends and family

Requirement: NJ singers in grades 3-9, changed and unchanged voices who can match pitch and love to sing! Singers do not need to know how to read music to participate. We'll teach them the basics of music reading and part-singing in one fun-filled day of music-making!

Cost: $20 per singer includes souvenir t-shirt for student, snacks, water, lunch, use of music and instruction. A teacher or chaperone must accompany each group of singers. Teachers/chaperones receive free lunch.

What will we learn?

Spirituals, freedom and civil rights songs. All music will be learned on the festival day. No advance preparation is needed.

The concert will end with two selections sung by combined choirs.

Additional Information:

Festival will be conducted by Patricia Januszewski for grades 3-5 and Polly Murray for grades 6-9. Don't miss this exciting event full of unique repertoire for children and youth.

Deadline for registration is March 1.

We encourage early on-line reservations for this popular program. Once we're at capacity, we need to close registration. POs, Paypal, and checks are acceptable forms of payment.

Teachers: please limit participation to 8 singers per division. Groups must be accompanied by a teacher or responsible adult chaperone. We will email confirmation of registration by 3/7.
